Washington Street Project Update:

Route 50 Project Update
Week of November 16 - 20 2015

The contractor has provided this tentative project schedule for the work next week:

Watermain Installation will Continue from Pendleton Street Towards Hamilton Street. Expect Delays as they get closer to Hamilton as the light will be taken out of service when working at the intersection.

Conduit crew will start week finishing the conduit work between Hamilton Street and Liberty. Once Complete they will move their operations to The Plains Road to Pendleton Street.

Expect to see two different flagging operations in town for the Majority of the Week and need to stay alert.

As always, thank you for your patience during this project.

The above plans are subject to change based on weather, production progress, etc.

Thanksgiving Dinner at Middleburg Community Center

November 15 C.M.Foss at Middleburg Common Grounds 2-4 pm - introducing her fourth book - "Jock"

Middleburg Common Grounds and Second Chapter Books

Ask you to join us

November 15, 2015

2pm – 4pm

At the coffee shop

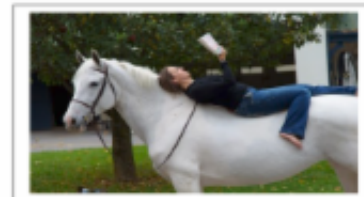

114 W. Washington

Local writer C.M Foss (aka: Clare Mansmann) will be introducing her fourth book: Jock

CLICHÉS She can't stand them. Hates them, refuses to be one. Tessa Brooks is strong-willed, sassy, determined, on the brink of dominating in the testosterone-fueled sport of horse racing. She's spent her life avoiding the norm, staying true to herself to achieve her ultimate goal but... could giving in to what she's really wanted for the last ten years be the very thing that destroys all her work?

I live in beautiful Northern Virginia with my incredible husband, two awesome kids, three dogs, and two budgies. My husband and I both grew up riding and competing horses, together we now run our own equestrian operation. My love of books started early, and my mom used to ration my reading time so I didn't go through them too quickly.

I love all things romantic, whether it's dark or light or silly or dirty, but I really love a happy ending!
